Schedule of Postgraduate fees

2017
EXPLANATION OF FEES

ANNUAL RESIDENTIAL FEES
The College reserves the right to increase fees during the year should this be necessary. Residential fees cover accommodation and food, supply of linen for the academic year (changed weekly), weekly cleaning of your room and bathroom, access to College tutorials, internet facilities and UQ Sport membership. Accounts will be emailed to students each semester. They are not posted to parents.

GRADUATE SOCIETY FEES
These fees are collected by the College, on behalf of the Graduate Society. These fees are billed separately at the start of the year. The fee for 2017 is $200.

ST JOHN'S CLUB FEES
Students over the age of 18 may apply to become members of the St John's Club - entry fee $25, annual fee $30. The St John's Club runs the Buttery Bar. These fees are additional to residential fees and are optional.

FIRE ALARMS
Anyone who sets off a fire alarm by accident, must bear the cost of the Fire Service call out. Currently this fine is $1,400.

GST: GOODS AND SERVICES TAX
Where any goods and services tax is, or is to be, imposed on the College on anything supplied by the College under this contract, including without limitation; rent, fees, non-refundable deposits, contingency fees etc the College shall be entitled to collect that GST from the Student at the same time the Student pays for the supply or in such manner as the College may stipulate including the paying by the Student to the College of any GST amount that may be imposed on the College at a subsequent date.

KEY CHARGE
A once-off charge of $150 is payable and is refundable, upon application, when a student leaves the College, provided that all keys and fobs have been returned and the room is left clean, tidy and undamaged.
Payment Plans

All students are required to pay a $3,000 deposit to confirm annual enrolment.

PLAN A
One Payment
The Enrolment Fee, St John’s Club fees (optional), Graduate Society fees plus Annual Residential Fees. An additional fee to members is a Key Charge.

PLAN B
Two Payments
1. The first payment is the Enrolment Fee, Graduate Society fees, St John’s Club fees (optional) plus half of the Annual Residential Fees. An additional fee to members is a Key Charge.
2. The second payment is the balance of the Annual Residential Fees.

PLAN C
Fortnightly Direct Debit
1. The first payment is paid to the College directly and includes the Enrolment Fee, Graduate Society fees, St John’s Club Annual fees (optional), Deferred Payment Fee and initial instalment of the Residential Fee. Additional fees for new members are St John’s Club Joining Fee and the Key Charge.
2. The balance is paid in 17 instalments through PaySmart deductions of fortnightly direct debit/credit payments. Please note that PaySmart will directly collect a one-off setup fee and a fortnightly Admin Fee.
3. Overseas applicants must use Plan A.
